2018 China-Japan Workshop on Nonlinear Diffusion Problems

Date: November 3-4, 2018

Location: Yitel Premium XUHUI (徐汇和颐至尊酒店, 漕宝路 124 号)

About the workshop:

This workshop is focused on the most recent progresses in nonlinear diffusion equations. The Workshop has 9 invited speakers from home, 9 from Japan and 1 from Switzerland who are actively involved in the research field with distinguished contributions. The objective of this workshop are to create a discussion on recent progress of the study of nonlinear diffusion equations.

Organizers:

Bendong Lou (Shanghai Normal University)
Masaharu Nagayama (Hokkaido University)
Ken-ichi Nakamura (Kanazawa University)
Maolin Zhou (University of New England)

Invited speakers include:

Xueli Bai (Northwest Polytechnical University)
Michel Chipot (Universität Zürich)
Shin-Ichiro Ei (Hokkaido University)
Hirofumi Izuhara (Miyazaki University)
Toru Kan (Osaka Prefecture University)
Fang Li (Sun Yat-sen University)
Wantong Li (Lanzhou University)
Qing Liu (Fukuoka University)
Harunori Monobe (Okayama University)
Zhigui Lin (Yangzhou University)
Yuan Lou (Ohio State University & Renmin University of China)
Masaharu Nagayama (Hokkaido University)
Ken-Ichi Nakamura (Kanazawa University)
Izumi Takagi (Renmin University of China)
Youshan Tao (Donghua University)
Masaaki Uesaka (Hokkaido University)
Takeo Ushijima (Tokyo University of Science)
Zhicheng Wang (Lanzhou University)
Yaping Wu (Capital Normal University)

Grant support:

Shanghai Municipal Education Commission – Gaofeng program
National Natural Science Foundation of China (11671262)

Registration:
